Keynote Speaker:
Susan White
Executive Director, North Carolina Sea Grant and the Water Resources Research Institute for the University of North Carolina

Susan White leads two inter-institutional UNC System programs based at NC State University that provide targeted research, outreach, and education projects to address critical coastal and water related issues across the state and region. Previously, she was the director of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration’s Hollings Marine Laboratory in Charleston, S.C. There she provided research vision and organizational management, including strategic planning with the partner agencies and universities. She also had served as national research coordinator for NOAA’s Estuarine Reserves Division and the National Estuarine Research Reserve System. Susan earned her BS in Biology at Duke University and PhD in Marine Sciences at the University of Georgia.
